

Other events in Sydney and Wollongong with international guest speaker Ann Pettifor

Thursday 8 September

“Making the boom pay – if not now, when?”

Catalyst and The Australia Institute conference, 10am-4pm, featuring Ann Pettifor as one of the keynote speakers - for more details contact Catalyst on 8090 1177

Institute of Environmental Studies and Society of Heterodox Economists campus workshop, 3-4.30pm, UNSW, ASB (Australian School of Business) 220. All welcome.

Friday 9 September

Half-day training with the South Coast Labour Council, the Illawarra Green Jobs Project and the University of Wollongong, 9am-1pm at the South Coast Labour Council, 1 Lowden Sq, Wollongong

- How the transition can be financed and be socially, as well as environmentally, beneficial
- The roles of organised labour and industry groups in developing political momentum for change, and in the transition itself.

All community members in the region are encouraged to apply for this training.

To find out more and RSVP contact:
bron@search.org.au or (02) 9211 4164

About Ann Pettifor

Ann Pettifor is a British economist and campaigner for justice and ecological sustainability. She is a member of the Green New Deal working group in the UK, a group focused on working out practical ways to make the global economic system fairer, give workers a better deal, wind back the power of corporations and the big banks, and at the same time lead the necessary transformation to ecological sustainability.

Green New Deal group: greennewdealgroup.org
Ann Pettifor's blog on economic crisis: debtonation.org
Macroeconomics think-tank: primeeconomics.org

Financing the transformation to a zero carbon economy

Why we can afford more jobs and a better life

Ann Pettifor speaking tour Public Forum

Thursday 8 September, 6pm Tom Mann Theatre

136 Chalmers St, Surry Hills
(near Devonshire St entrance of Central Station)

Ann Pettifor (UK)

Arthur Rorris (South Coast Labour Council)

RSVP by Monday 5 September to bron@search.org.au or 9211 4164

Suggested donation $10 waged, $5 concession/unwaged

